The Africana Studies Department presents

Mayor Ras Baraka and Sister Souljah

Dismantling the Color Line in the 21st Century

Tuesday, February 9, 2016
7:30pm

Center Hall
Busch Student Center
(Busch Campus)

Ras Baraka
Mayor, Newark (New Jersey)

Sister Souljah
Award-winning author, activist, recording artist and film producer, and Rutgers University Alumna

Co-sponsored by the American Studies Department, Asian American Cultural Center, Campus Deans, Consortium on Race in the Americas, Cultural Center Collaborative, Graduate School of Education (Dean’s Office), Paul Robeson Cultural Center, Office of Student Access and Educational Equity, the Political Science Department, Rutgers African American Alumni Alliance, and Undergraduate Academic Affairs