Stephan Eric Bronner was born in 1949. He received his B.A. from the City College of New York and his Ph.D. from the University of California, Berkeley. The Senior Editor of Logos, an interdisciplinary internet journal, he is also Chair of the Executive Committee of US Academics for Peace and a member of the advisory board of Conscience International and the Brussels War Crimes Tribunal. Professor Bronner’s works have been translated into a dozen languages. They include: Socialism Unbound: Principles, Practices, Prospects (Columbia University Press); Camus: Portrait of a Moralist (University of Chicago Press); Critical Theory: A Very Short Introduction (Oxford University Press); Of Critical Theory and Its Theorists (Routledge); A Rumor about the Jews: Anti-Semitism, Conspiracy, and the ‘Protocols of Zion’ (Oxford University Press); Reclaiming the Enlightenment: Toward a Politics of Radical Engagement (Columbia University Press); Blood in the Sand: Imperial Fantasies, Right-Wing Ambitions, and the Erosion of American Democracy (University Press of Kentucky) and Peace Out of Reach: Middle Eastern Travels and the Search for Reconciliation (University Press of Kentucky). Stephan Eric Bronner is Board of Governors Professor of Political Science and Director of Global Relations at the Center for the Study of Genocide and Human Rights at Rutgers University. He was the recipient of the 2011 ME Peace Award from the Middle East Network for Peace in Jerusalem.