Office hours: By appointments, we can have office, skype/email meetings

Course Delivery

This course is fully online. To access the course, please visit sakai.rutgers.edu  . For more information about course access or support, contact the Sakai Help Desk via email at sakai@rutgers.edu or call 848-445-8721.

Course Description

This course is designed to enhance students' understanding of contemporary politics of Human Trafficking and the agencies of the United Nations that work on resolving the issues related to trafficking and smuggling of persons. We will explore the historical development, the main theories that explain human trafficking and smuggling, the institutional framework, and policies.

Important Dates

The course begins on 1/17/2017 and ends on 5/1/2017, and the last day to drop the course without a "W" grade is 1/29/2017.

Course Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, students should successfully be able to:

- To understand the distinction between human trafficking and smuggling
- To explain demand for human trafficking and smuggling and various ways in which it is organized
- To understand responsibilities of the states to trafficked and victims
- To explore and critically examine the diverse roles and motivations of smugglers and traffickers and the ethics behind violations of immigration controls
- To assess critically the international, regional, and national policies that ostensibly aim to combat human trafficking and smuggling.

Academic Integrity

The consequences of scholastic dishonesty are very serious. Please review the Rutgers' academic integrity policy .

Academic integrity means, among other things:

- Develop and write all of your own assignments.

- Show in detail where the materials you use in your papers come from. Create citations whether you are paraphrasing authors or quoting them directly. Be sure always to show source and page number within the assignment and include a bibliography in the back.
- Do not fabricate information or citations in your work.
- Do not facilitate academic dishonesty for another student by allowing your own work to be submitted by others.

If you are in doubt about any issue related to plagiarism or scholastic dishonesty, please discuss it with your instructor.

Other sources of information to which you can refer include:

- Rutgers' Academic Integrity website
- Code of Student Conduct
- Eight Cardinal Rules of Academic Integrity

Academic Support Services

- Rutgers has a variety of resources for academic support. For more information, check the Academic Support website  .
- Rutgers has Learning Centers on each campus where any student can obtain tutoring and other help. For information, check the Learning Center website  .
- Rutgers also has a Writing Center where students can obtain help with writing skills and assignments. Learn more at the Writing Center website  .
- Many library resources are available online. Assistance is available through phone, email, and chat. For information, check the Rutgers Libraries website  .

Rutgers Health Services

- Rutgers Health Services is dedicated to health for the whole student body, mind and spirit. It accomplishes this through a staff of qualified clinicians and support staff, and delivers services at a number of locations throughout the New Brunswick-Piscataway area. For more information, check the Rutgers Health Services website  .

Accommodations for Accessibility

Requesting accommodations

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation. More information can be found in the Documentation Guidelines section of the Office for Disability Services website.

If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration Form on the Office for Disability Services website.

Go to the Student section of the Office of Disability Services website for more information.
